老外摊人民路

Our office is located direct in the center of Lao Waitan. On the bank of the Yong river and next to Ningbo's Yongjiang Bridge, Lao Waitan is rapidly growing, with new businesses always starting. Also known as "Ningbo's Bund", it's Ningbo's old foreigner district from the old days as a treaty port in the 18th and 19th centuries. A beautiful Catholic church built in French Gothic style is adjacent to Lao Waitan. The cobblestone streets are a nice touch. Many restaurants of different styles make their home here
